Benefits Workshop in Natick

June 12, 2012

MetroWest

Center for Independent Living, Inc.

Greetings!

The Metrowest Employment Collaborative, and the Greater Boston Employment Collaborative are jointly sponsoring a workshop:

Social Security and Mass Health Benefits and Employment

Are you a person with a disability or a person who has lived with a mental health diagnosis? Do you know or work with individuals who are seeking employment and/or are employed who would be interested in learning more about Social Security Benefits and Mass Health Benefits? If so, you are invited to attend a workshop on retaining Social Security and Mass Health benefits upon entering or reentering the workforce.

The primary objective of the workshop is to assist persons with disabilities to better understand the ins and outs of retaining Social Security and Mass Health benefits when considering entering or reentering the workplace.

When:

Tuesday, June 26 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Where:

The Morse Institute Library
14 East Central Street, Natick

The registration deadline is June 25. If you require any special accommodations, you must let us know by June 19.

To register, download the flyer, fill out the pre-registration form and email it to lizk@advocatesinc.org. The flyer includes additional information about the workshop, as well as directions and transportation options to the Morse Institute Library. If you have any questions, call Jini Fairley at 508-875-7853.
